

EDOS this Shabbos

8

15

15

EDOS

Rav & Rebbetzin Rosensweig

This Shabbos, we have the great opportunity and privilege of hosting Rav & Rebbetzin Rosensweig. Rav & Rebbetzin Rosensweig will give various Shiurim throughout the entire weekend.

We are very fortunate to host an extremely dynamic couple who define our mission as a community. The EDOS community is fortunate that this extremely charismatic and warm couple have agreed to come to EDOS this time of year, and help prepare us in a meaningful and spiritual way with words of Torah in the days leading up to Elul and the Yomim Noraim.

Rav Rosensweig is the Nathan and Perel Schupf Chair in Talmud at RIETS. He is a 1980 graduate of Yeshiva College, and earned an M.A. and a Ph.D. from the Bernard Revel Graduate School. After receiving semicha from RIETS, Rav Rosensweig was among the first group to complete the intensive post-graduate studies in RIETS' Caroline and Joseph S. Gruss Kollel Elyon. Rav Rosensweig was appointed a Rosh Yeshiva, a member of the RIETS faculty, in 1985. He has written extensively, contributing to numerous journals of Torah learning. In 1997, Rabbi Rosensweig was appointed Rosh Kollel (Dean) of the prestigious Israel Henry Beren Institute for Higher Talmudic Studies at RIETS. Rav Rosensweig is known for his intricate conceptual approach to Talmud study, as well as his heavy use of Brisker methodology in Talmudic analysis.

Rebbetzin Smadar Rosensweig is a professor of Tanach at Yeshiva University's Stern College for Women. Prior to that she served as professor of Judaic studies and history at Touro College. Rebbetzin Rosensweig received her B.A. from Barnard College and her M.A. ('87) and M.Phil ('89) from Columbia University. Rebbetzin Rosensweig delivers shiurim and lectures extensively throughout the New York metropolitan area and across the country. She is the daughter of Rabbi Dr. David Eliach and Dr. Yaffa Eliach, renowned Holocaust Scholar and professor emeritus at Brooklyn College.

We encourage everyone to attend all the different opportunities to hear Rav & Rebbetzin Rosensweig. We look forward to a Shabbos of profound growth in Torah with the Rav & Rebbetzin Rosensweig.

Schedule

Rav Rosensweig will give an in depth Shabbos morning Rambam Shiur beginning at 8:15AM.

Rav Rosensweig will give the Shabbos morning Drasha before Mussaf.

There will be a Shiur and women's Shalosh Seudos for women @5:00 P.M. given by Rebbetzin Rosensweig at the home of Mrs. Michelle Teitelbaum.